In addition to judging conformation classes, this judge also enjoys:

- Youth Shows
- Showmanship

Chris grew up in Kersey, Colorado on his family's dairy farm, Horizon-Vue Dairy. Growing up he was able to show on the county, state and national levels. In 1996, he was part of the Colorado 4H team that judged at the National Contest during Expo. Chris earned All-American recognition and the team placed 3rd. In 1997, Chris participated in the National FFA Dairy Judging contest in Kansas City, where he earned a Gold award. Chris enjoys showing Holsteins, R&W Holsteins and Jerseys with his wife and sons. Since 2008, he has chaired the Colorado Dairy Youth Extravaganza, Colorado's largest multi-state youth dairy show held every June. In day-to-day life, Chris is an Engineering Manager for Leprino Foods in Greeley. Chris enjoys judging conformation and showmanship, and has been asked back to regional county fairs multiple times.
