

2025 NATIONAL JUNIOR EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING CONTEST

Purpose:

The National Junior Holstein Association Extemporaneous Public Speaking Contest is designed to develop the ability of participants to express themselves on given subjects without having prepared or rehearsed its content in advance, therefore causing contestants to formulate their remarks for presentation in a very limited amount of time. The event will be held in connection with the National Junior Holstein Convention.

Eligibility:

1. To be eligible to compete in the National Extemporaneous Public Speaking Contest, the individual must be a Junior Member of Holstein Association USA.
2. The contest will be held on June 24, 2025. The completed application form must be received by May 1st.
3. This contest is currently only open to those members in the senior age division. States can enter a maximum of three senior division contestants. Participants must be between the ages of 18 to 20 years old to participate but have not reached their 21st birthday by January 1 in the year competing.

Rules & Procedures:

1. The selection of topics shall be held prior to the event and speaking order will be randomly drawn by event officials.
2. Once the speaking order is revealed, contestants will be admitted to the preparation room at 10-minute intervals. Participants will draw three specific topics, selected at random from one pool of six, relating to the Holstein or dairy industries. After selecting the topic, they desire to speak on, all three topics will be returned for the next drawing.
3. Participants will then be given 30 minutes for speech preparation. Unlimited reference materials may be brought to the preparation room. Contestants may bring a fully charged laptop computer to the preparation room for use in gathering speech materials.
4. Each speech shall be the result of the participant's own effort using reference material. No other assistance may be provided. Participants can use 3" x 5" note cards they provide. Any notes for speaking must be made during the 30-minute preparation period.
5. Once your preparation time is up you will go immediately to the holding room.

6. The event officials shall introduce each participant by name and in order of the drawing.
7. A contestant will be permitted to use notes while speaking, but deductions in scoring may be made for this practice if it detracts from the effectiveness of the presentation.
8. No visual aids will be allowed for this contest – this includes posters and costumes.
9. A timekeeper will record the time by each contestant in delivering his or her speech, noting undertime or overtime, if any, for which deductions will be made. The timekeeper will indicate when 30 seconds remain by holding up a timecard.
10. Three competent and impartial judges will be selected to judge the contest. A list of all possible topics will be given to the judges prior to the event. A maximum of five minutes will be allotted at the completion of speech for judges to ask questions. Questions shall pertain directly to the speaker's subject. Questions containing two or more parts should be avoided.
11. When all participants have finished speaking, each judge will total the score on each contestant without consultation. The timekeeper's record will be used in computing the final score for each participant. The judges' score sheets will then be submitted to event officials to determine the final rankings of participants.

Time Limit:

In the senior division each presentation should be a minimum of four minutes and a maximum of six minutes. Each contestant shall introduce themselves by name and their speech title only. Time commences when the speaker begins the speech. Speakers may use a watch to keep a record of their time. There will be a warning given by event officials at the minimum time requirement.

Each contestant will be allowed five minutes in which the judging committee will ask questions relating to his or her speech. Deductions will be made from the score of each judge for speeches that are under the time limit or over the time limit in length.
