James Hoffman grew up on his grandparent's dairy heifer replacement operation in Southeastern Pennsylvania. He became interested in registered dairy cattle through his county 4-H club led by James Dunn. James is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State University where he majored in Animal Sciences and Agribusiness Management. He also completed the Holstein Foundation's Young Dairy Leaders' Institute.

James started his career working as a dairy nutritionist in Madison, Wisconsin where he also had the opportunity to work on farm and at shows with numerous show cattle and commercial herds. Currently James is a Territory Sales Manager for Corteva Agrisciences covering Western PA and NY. James shows locally at the All-American Dairy Show and occasionally at World Dairy Expo and attends numerous shows across the county. He breeds animals under his Tumbling Run Holsteins prefix.

He and his wife Dr. Janelle Hoffman reside in Slippery Rock, PA with their sons Matthew, Andrew, & Ethan. James has judged many local, district and state shows throughout Pennsylvania. He is also on his states PDCA judges list.
