Allyn Paulson aka Spud, comes from Rockford, IL where he owns and operates Paule-View Transport LLC. Paule-View relocates high end dairy cattle from coast to coast. Allyn shares his passion of show cattle with his two boys Sutton and Dakota.

Allyn has spent the past 20 years in the industry where he fits and cares for show strings. He has judged numerous county fairs and state fairs of all breeds in ten different states. He considers his biggest accomplishments to be judging World Dairy Expo in 2015 and 2017 where he had the honor of placing the Milking Shorthorn and Ayrshires. Allyn also judged the 2018 North American International Livestock Expo in Louisville, KY where he placed the Black and White Holsteins along with the Red and Whites in the open show.

Allyn developed a passion for high end show cattle at a young age. With the help from many people he developed seven 93 to 95 point cows in four different breeds along with numerous excellent cows. He has had All-American nominations in Red and White Holsteins, Black and White Holsteins, Brown Swiss, and Milking Shorthorns.
