

Julie Hemp

Beaverville, IL

815.383.2951

mjhfrcare@gmail.com

Julie Hemp along with her husband Mike own and operate MJH Ayrshire and M & J Heifer Care of Beaverville, Ill. They have bred and developed many All-American Ayrshire, Holsteins, and Jerseys. At the 2017, World Dairy Expo they were awarded the Premier Exhibitor of the Heifer Show in the Ayrshire Breed. She has judged many local, county, state and national shows including the 1998 National Guernsey Show at World Dairy Expo, and 2012 National Guernsey Show at NAILE. She also judged the Milking Shorthorn Junior Show at Louisville twice and was the Associate for the National Junior Show at Louisville. She has had the honor to be on the All-American Holstein, Ayrshire, Guernsey, Milking Shorthorn panels.

Julie grew up on her family's registered Holstein farm in Illinois where she was a member of the Illinois National 4H judging team. Julie was high individual at the All-American Judging Contest in Harrisburg in two breeds and was High Individual in Reasons. She was also High Individual for placings and reasons at the National FFA dairy judging contest. Julie enjoys working with junior members and has judged numerous showmanship's including the International Showmanship contest at World Dairy Expo.

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- International Guernsey Show- Madison, WI (World Dairy Expo)
- National Guernsey Show- Louisville, KY (North American International Livestock Expo)
- International Showmanship Contest- Madison, WI (World Dairy Expo)
- Indiana State Black and White Junior Show
- National Ayrshire Junior Show- Louisville, KY (North American International Livestock Expo)

Besides judging type conformation classes, this judge also enjoys:

- Youth Shows
- Showmanship