

William E. Langel

McFarland, WI
920.210.3998
965blangel@gmail.com

Bill is from McFarland, Wis. The Langel family has been involved with exhibiting Ayrshires for more the 70 years. Starting with Bill's father, Nelson, and continuing through Bill and Linda's three children: Laurie, David, and John. Scotch Haven Ayrshires have shown numerous All-Americans, as well as grand champion cows at two national shows. Bill has judged national shows including World Dairy Expo and the North American International Livestock Exposition, in Louisville, Ky. as well as judging six different breeds at regional, and state shows. He has been an official judge in All-American contests for four different breeds, as well as the Hoards Dairyman Contest. Bill serves as Superintendent for the Red and White show at World Dairy Expo. A consultant for 20 years for Holstein USA, Bill has been a dairy specialist for East Central Select Sires for eleven years.

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- National Guernsey Show, Madison, WI
- National Junior Ayrshire Show, Louisville, KY
- National Junior Guernsey Show, Louisville, KY
- Regional Red and White Show Ohio State Fair, Columbus, OH
- 2010 Hoard's Dairyman Contest Ayrshire Official

Besides judging type conformation classes, this judge also enjoys:

- Youth Shows
- Showmanship