Londa grew up on a 120-cow dairy in Minn. Growing up she was active in both 4-H and FFA. She attended the University of Wisconsin - River Falls where she earned a bachelor's degree in dairy science with a minor in business communications. While in college, Londa was active on the dairy judging team. In 2009, her judging team won the Harrisburg, Pa. contest and placed 2nd at the World Dairy Expo contest, with Londa finishing in the top 10 in both placings and oral reasons. Londa has worked for the American Jersey Cattle Association as a Linear Type Appraiser as well as Semex USA as an Elite Account Manager. Currently, Londa is employed by Compeer Financial as a Financial Officer. Londa has a passion for raising and breeding elite Registered Jerseys and Holsteins with her husband Matthew, under the Hillpine Holsteins and New Heights Jerseys prefixes. In her spare time, Londa enjoys coaching dairy judging, helping with the WDE collegiate contest, traveling and gardening.
