Ben Simpson grew up and still resides in Belmont County, Ohio, where he and his wife, Hannah milk 100 Registered Holstein cows alongside his parents, Don and Danette Simpson. Ben is the fourth generation at Plainfield Farms. Ben and his dad strive for high end genetics, where they have bred and developed over 30 Excellent cows in the herd.

In high school, Ben was a member of his FFA Chapter's Dairy Judging Team where he grew his passion for evaluating cattle. Ben has exhibited his Holsteins at the county, state, and national levels, including receiving numerous All-Ohio awards. Ben can often be found in the clipping chute where he has had the privilege of fitting numerous national show winners, including the 2018 Junior Champion and Grand Champion Guernsey at Word Dairy Expo.
