

Nathan Thomas

North Lewisburg, OH

937.537.0805

nthomas129@yahoo.com

Nathan Thomas, his wife Jenny, their three children - Colton, Kendall, and Camryn, along with his family, own and operate Triple-T Holsteins in North Lewisburg, Ohio. Triple-T's herd consists of over 100 registered head of Holsteins and Jerseys with the current milking herd being 30 head. The farm also harvests over 200 acres of hay annually.

Triple-T has been fortunate to breed, own, develop, sell and board over 120 All-American and All-Canadian nominations. It has been home to many champions over the years including favorites - Extreme Electra, Stephan Sparkler Vera, Starmark Ad Hotstuff-Red-ET, Lovhill Goldwyn Katrysha, Meadow Green Abso Fanny-Red, Bri-Lin Valson Spritz, and Showdown Justine. T-Triple-T Dundee Paige has served as the cornerstone of the Holstein herd and has produced three 95-point offspring and many excellent descendants.

Nathan has judged local, state, regional, national, and international shows for both Holstein, Jersey, and several other component breeds.

Nathan operates and manages the daily tasks and operations at Triple-T. Beyond the daily chores, he also manages the marketing of the farm and oversees cattle and embryo sales. In addition, he co-manages the annual The Best of Triple-T and Heath sale series.

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- Judging Holsteins, Jerseys & Red & White's at World Dairy Expo
- Judging Jerseys at the Royal Winter Fair
- Officiating at National Shows in Mexico & Brazil

Besides judging type conformation classes, this judge also enjoys:

- Youth Shows