Jeff Brantmeier, of Hilbert, Wis.I, is part-owner of Hilrose Dairy, LLC. The family run partnership consists of Jeff's father Joe and his brother Andy. The Brantmeier's currently milk 100 cows with 200 head of young stock, while farming nearly 1,200 acres, which consists of alfalfa, corn, soybeans, and winter wheat. The rolling herd average is over 31,000 pounds of milk and the herd consists of 46 Excellent, 52 Very Good, and 12 GP cows with a BAA of 111.8. They have been named Premier Breeder and Exhibitor several times at the District 10 Holstein show and are very proud to have been named a Holstein USA Herd of Excellence the last several years as well.

Hilrose has bred several All-American nominations, most recently the 2017 Reserve All-American Red & White Production cow, Hilrose Advent Anna-Red-ET. Jeff has judged numerous county fairs and futurities throughout the state and served as the associate judge for the Wisconsin Junior State Fair Junior Show. Jeff coaches the Calumet County dairy judging team and serves as President of the Calumet County Holstein Breeders. Jeff and his wife, Bonnie, have three sons Bentley, Blake, and Brodie.
