Jeff Brown was born and raised on a Registered Holstein farm in Wapakoneta, Ohio. He now lives in Jackson Center, Ohio with his wife Megan. The herd today consists of 30 head of Holstein, Jersey, and Brown Swiss and they exhibit their cows at state and national shows. They have bred or owned an All-American nomination in all three breeds and have bred five Brown Swiss class winners at World Dairy Expo, all five of which went on to be selected as All-American.

Jeff has judged in nine states and three times internationally in Costa Rica, Brazil, and Columbia. He has also served as the associate judge at World Dairy Expo twice judging the Brown Swiss in 2011 and the Jerseys in 2014. He has also officiated the All-American Junior Jersey show in Louisville and the Junior Jersey show at the Pennsylvania All-American Show. Jeff is employed at Cobra Select Sires as the dairy programs specialist for southern Ohio and southwest Pennsylvania.
