Elizabeth Hall resides in East Montpelier, Vt. on Fairmont LLC with her husband Ricky, son Teddy, and daughter, Hazel. She was born and raised on Raylore Farm, a Registered Holstein farm in Minnesota where they consistently exhibited at the Midwest Fall National and World Dairy Expo. Elizabeth graduated from the University of Minnesota with degrees in animal science and economics. While there, she also competed on the collegiate dairy judging team.

Now in Vermont, Elizabeth, and her husband house their roughly 25 show type animals on their family's 1,400 cow farm. Together with their family, they have bred or developed multiple All-New England animals with a few All-Americans in their budding show program. They also reinvigorated the Vermont 4-H Dairy Judging team, helped start the New England Summer Show, and manage 'Favorites of Fairmont', a repeating on-farm sale to market the farm's best animals along with consignments. Elizabeth has judged in both the Midwest and New England and is passionate about breed progress—breeding and selecting for a more modern cow.
