

Ted Papageorge

Ogden, UT
801.389.6967
tpappys@q.com

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- Washington State Holstein Show
- California State Holstein Junior Show
- Oregon State Holstein Show
- Washington State Jersey Show
- Sonoma County Fair

In addition to judging conformation classes, this judge also enjoys:

- Youth Shows
- Showmanship

Ted Papageorge is a third-generation dairy farmer. He currently owns Pappys Farm located in Ogden Utah. Ted works with his family to breed and care for their herd of about 60 Registered Holsteins and the occasional Jersey. Ted is married to wife Debbie and father of children Lacey, Alexis, and Landon all of whom help on the dairy. Ted has chased his passion in the showring since he was a child and owned Pappys Elevation Scatt, All-American Junior Yearling in 1978. Pappys won Premier Breeder and Exhibitor at the Western Fall National in 2019 Pappys also has won Premier Breeder 22 times and Premier Exhibitor 16 times at the Western Spring National in Richmond Utah. Ted also bred the 2011 Junior Champion at the International Holstein Show Pappys Goldwyn Rave-ET who was also All-American and All-Canadian. Pappys is the home of the breeders kind.