Jason Lloyd is a partner in Maple-Downs Farms II in Middleburgh, New York. Breeding Holsteins under the Maple-Downs prefix, they have seen much showing success and bred several All-Americans and over 130 Excellent cows. Jason has also been involved in several successful partnerships. Most notably, he was part of the partnership that developed the MD-DELIGHT DURHAM ATLEE-ET cow family and bred the popular showing sire MAPLE-DOWNS-I G W ATWOOD-ET.

Jason has judged extensively throughout the Northeast and Midwest, including the Wisconsin Spring Show, Wisconsin State Fair, North American International Livestock Exposition, New York Spring Dairy Carousel, and New York State Fair. He has also traveled to Brazil, Peru, and the Dominican to judge. Most recently, Jason judged Uruguay's National Holstein Show and the North American International Livestock Exposition Brown Swiss Show.

Jason and his fiancée, Lexie, keep busy on the farm milking 125 Registered Holsteins as well as tending to boarded show cattle of six different breeds. They also run a successful show care program that has produced several All American nominations. In addition, the farm works 1,000 acres of cropland and does 2,000 acres of custom work. Jason is also currently serving as the New York Holstein Association President.
