J-P has grown up on his family farm in St-Alexandre qc with the prefix CHALUKA. After finishing school with a degree in dairy science from the agricultural school in La Pocatiere qc, he started traveling worldwide to fit and work with the best dairy cattle around the world. His work took him around Quebec, Canada, USA, South America, Europe and Australia. Now, him and his wife Annick, own and operate Ferme Charest with their 4 children, that milk 70 Holstein, Jersey and Ayrshire. J-P bred and sold many animals that were all American, all Canadian and all Quebec. He has judged many local, regional provincial and national shows around Quebec, Canada and USA in many breeds (Holstein, Ayrshire and Jersey). He thinks show ring is an awesome learning place to be a better cowman all around.
