

JONATHON ELSASS

Plain City, OH
773.331.1914
jonathonelsass@gmail.com

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- Member of National Champion Collegiate Judging Team at Madison in 2000

Jonathon grew up in the purebred dairy industry as his family owns and operates Quietcove Holsteins in Wapakoneta, OH. He showed Holsteins at the local, state and national levels while also competing in 4-H and FFA judging contests. Jonathon graduated from Cornell University in 2001. While at Cornell, he was a member of the 2000 World Dairy Expo Intercollegiate National Champion dairy judging team.

While working professionally in investment banking & finance, he has maintained an ownership interest in the home farm at Quietcove with the Elsass family. Quietcove has competed in the show ring for 50 years, including numerous All American nominations and show ring success at the Ohio State Fair & World Dairy Expo.

Jonathon resides in Plain City, OH with his wife Chris and children Braxton, Finley, Greyson & Tatum.