Kaleb Kruse is part-owner of KCKK Genetics & Boarding alongside his younger brothers, Cole and Carter Kruse. Together, they raise and exhibit all seven dairy breeds at the local, state, and national levels.

Based in Dyersville, Iowa, Kruse is deeply involved in the dairy industry. He has judged at numerous local, state, and national shows, including serving as Associate Judge for the National Ayrshire Show, the International Brown Swiss Show, and the All American Junior Jersey Show. He has also judged the National Ayrshire and Guernsey Junior Shows at the North American International Livestock Exposition.

A highlight of his career came in 2019 when he received the prestigious Merle Howard Award at World Dairy Expo. Kruse continues to give back to the industry, currently serving on the World Dairy Expo Junior Holstein Committee and the National Ayrshire Marketing Board. Additionally, he is the head coach of the Delaware County 4-H judging team.

In addition to his work in the showing and industry leadership, Kruse is a member of the sales team at Cowbuyer.com and works as an Agronomy Sales Advisor for Innovative Ag.
