

MICHELLE MORIAN

Atlantic, PA
814.282.3678
mmorian@hotmail.com

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- Intermediate Division of the All-American Showmanship Competition, Harrisburg, PA
- Louisiana State Fair Jr Show, Gonzalez, LA
- Warren County Dairy Show, Warren, PA
- Cattaraugus County Jr Show, Little Valley, NY
- Central District Show, Centre Hall, PA

Michelle Morian was born and raised in Atlantic, Pennsylvania on her family's dairy farm. The family milks around 40 head of Holsteins, Jerseys, Red & Whites, and Brown Swiss under the Mish-Ro Holsteins & Jerseys and Indelible Brown Swiss prefixes. Michelle and her sister have bred over 50 EX cows to date, including one EX-95 and four EX-94 Holsteins and Jerseys. The duo have also bred several All-American and Jr All-American Nominations. In addition to daily work with the cattle, Michelle also operates an agricultural graphic design business: Michelle Morian Design. Through that business, she has had the privilege to create ads, banners, logos, sale catalogs, and much more for breeders across the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Scotland, Ireland, Switzerland, and Australia.

Michelle has been judging since 2008, having judged numerous shows in the United States, including a number of Jr Shows from New York to Illinois and Louisiana. These include the Intermediate Division of the All-American Showmanship Contest held in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, a tremendous competition which boasted 176 entries in the Intermediate Division the year Michelle judged. Michelle also loves giving back to youth through judging showmanship competitions, giving showmanship and fitting demonstrations, and encouraging youth of all ages to fall passionately in love with the dairy cow.